

consolidation of media ownership limits our freedom and rights to know the truth. Every news report I hear or see seems manipulated, orchestrated and programmed by mega corporations or the present government administration. we need more investigative reporting and less "editorializing" by reporters and stations. media ownership policy should promote localism, diversity and competition. please seek the full truth and keep us informed. thank you for your consideration of my worries and concerns margaret carlson---el cajon